WIND AND WEATHER WINDOW GALLERY (ISL)

LEIDIN HEIM JOURNEY TO HOME

GLUGGAR Í MIDBORGINNÍ

WINDOWS IN CITY CENTRE

Farðu í göngufærð um miðborg Reykjavíkur og leggðu uppi fandlegt hugunarferðalag „heim“. Hvernig erhaegt og hvernig áð konast á þann stað sem kallast „heim“? Þessi sýning á verkum valinakunna íslenskra listamanna og listamanna búsettra á Íslandi fer fram í gluggum verslana og íbúða viðsvegar um miðborgina sem og í hreyfianlegu gluggagallerí, Dragsúgi, sem ferðast mun um borgina og staldra tímabundin við á ýmsum staðum í almannafær.

Take a walk in downtown Reykjavík and embark on a spiritual and reflective journey 'home'. How can or how should you arrive in this place called 'home'? This exhibition, featuring prominent Icelandic artists and artists residing in Iceland, is located in commercial and residential windows around the city centre as well as in a mobile window gallery, Dragsúgi, which will travel around the city and be temporarily parked in public spaces.

Dragsúgi (the Icelandic name for the wind that comes from a window) is the embodiment of the gallery, transformed into a mobile window through his longing to experience walking in human form. The window is taking its journey home; meaning, home doesn't always have to be where you originated from. In his travels, Dragsúgi will provide a space for artists to perform and for installations.

Guided tours run approximately one hour and start at the Festival hub. June 3 at 16:00 - Opening June 9, 10, 14, 15 at 13:00 June 16, 17 at 14:00
